

Water Colour Painting

in rural Romania

Learn to paint and draw with the help of an experienced, easy going tutor. Walk over the hills and experience the breathtaking views in the lovely autumn sunlight. Both the countryside and the local people can be counted among the possibilities for inspiration.

Rosalind Shawcross graduated from the British School of Reflexology and then trained in Advanced and Facial Reflexology.

She has a clinic in Deal, Kent.

She is a keen walker and knows the area well. The walks will be fun and nobody need feel under any pressure to do more than they are able.

Bill Diggins is a practicing watercolour painter and art tutor of many years experience. He has published books about painting and regularly exhibits his work. He lives in Colchester, Essex.

In a lively, friendly and stimulating atmosphere, be guided through the rich autumn landscape of Transylvania. All you need is enthusiasm to paint and enjoy this beautiful place.